

Outcomes for Global Connections II

Westfield School in the U.K. visited several schools in South Africa and Botswana on behalf of Round Square and arranged for a late June, 1998 visit by a member of their staff and several students to the bush camp in Botswana. Westfield hosted a student from Greenwich Academy (CT, USA) during the spring term of 1999. Three students of Westfield were hosted at Greenwich Academy in the spring term of 1999.

Meg Moulton initiated a pen-pal program with the Letsibogo Girls' High School in Soweto, South Africa and several U.S. schools, including Greenwich Academy (CT, USA).

Munungi Musee of Starehe Boys' Centre and School, Kenya, was invited by Mr. Rod Fraser, of Ivanhoe, and Alan Ross of Billanook, Australia, to visit their schools to make arrangements for one Starehe student to attend their schools on scholarship.

Ken Rowe of Frankston High School, Australia, offered two scholarships to two students of Letsibogo Girls' High School, Soweto, South Africa, for the academic year 1998-99. Scholarships continued for academic year 1999-2000.

St. Stithians, Johannesburg, helped in the orientation of the four South African students traveling to Australia on scholarships by having them visit their school for one week. David Wylde, Rector of St. Stithians, and two teams of housemasters spent several days each at Starehe Boys' Centre and School, Kenya where they discussed possible long term collaboration.

Ballarat & Clarendon College, Australia, provided a shipment of books for the library at Letsibogo Girls' High School, Soweto, South Africa.

Methodist Ladies' College, Australia hosted students from St. Stithians Collegiate, South Africa during the fall term of 1998.

D. Knowles, R. De Villiers, K. Garrett, D. Schreuder, M. Gammie, all of Kearsney College in South Africa visited Starehe Boys' Centre and School in Nairobi, Kenya in March of 1999.

Placement of a Maru-a-Pula student from Botswana at Deerfield Academy, (MA, USA) on a one year scholarship for the 1998-1999 academic year.

A graduate of Deerfield Academy (MA, USA) who was a Morehead Scholar at the University of North Carolina, worked at Letsibogo Girls' High School (Soweto, South Africa) during a summer.